HABcore held its fifth annual Jazz by the River festival at the Rumson home of Ed and Laurie McNamee, attracting 104 guests who raised $10,500. HABcore is a nonprofit organization that provides permanent and temporary housing for about 100 residents in need from Monmouth and Ocean counties, offering them a better quality of life with a safe place to live and healthy meals. For information or to volunteer for HABcore, contact the Red Bank office at 732-544-1975 or visit www.HABcore.org.
